

The Stanes Weekly

Issue 13

February, 2015 Coonor

SPECIAL POINTS OF INTEREST :

- Republic Day
- I CAN
- Elocution

REPUBLIC DAY !

I CAN!

On the 24th of January '15, Saturday a Motivational Session was specially held for the Std X and XII students. It was held at Stanes A.I.Hr.Sec School. Timber Tops and St. Antony's School students along with the Home school were present.

The Principal Mr.Glenn Croning briefed the children on how to prepare for exams. The Guest speaker was Pastor Meston Jebaraj from Erode who took the children through a session of mind boggling questions regarding exam fear and the importance of God amidst all of these. He suggested as Prayer the only option that can handle strategies.

He used a documentary to advice all and helped set goals and methods on how to achieve it.

The 66th Republic Day was a special day with the batch of 1984 students coming together, to relive the memories of the past. The flag was hoisted by Mr. M.G. Ramesh, an alumnus accompanied by the Head Master Mr. Ronald Fernandez, the salute taken and the National Anthem played by the brass band.

The drills and dances added a splash of colour, speeches were delivered in Tamil and Hindi. A few of the alumni spoke recalling memories of happy days in school. Sweets were distributed to all present. A thanksgiving service was held in the Library by the Middle school teachers.

A sumptuous lunch was hosted by the Alumni for the teachers both present and past, memories shared. Memories that lie too deep for tears.

Feedback was taken from children. Tea was served to all present.

ELOCUTION !

Kotagiri Public School, hosted an Inter School elocution competition on 24th Jan. '15. The topic: Clean India- Cleanliness is the fundamental duty of every citizen.

Tejas M of Std XI and Jemi Dellas of Std IX won the Second place. Tejas M was voted the 2nd Best Speaker, he was awarded 2 novels and a Certificate.